Replying to journalists gathered at the airport to wish him well on his historic mission, Henderson said:

"Thank you. I shall want all the good luck I can get."

Immediately after Henderson's departure, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain called at Buckingham Palace and informed King George of all late developments.

Henderson started out on his fateful mission in the German capital as Europe's fiercest preparations for war reached a breath-taking climax.

At the same time, Holland mobilized her armed forces and France awaited a final order calling every last available man to the colors.

British shipping will stop at both ends of the Mediterranean. Ships already in that area will continue their voyages, but have been directed to leave Italian ports.

At the same time the British Parliament was called back from vacation and summoned to meet at 2.45 p. m. tomorrow (19.45 a. m. Boston time).

It was understood the session would be a brief one, consisting mainly of a statement by Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain on the current position and short speeches by opposition leaders.

Chamberlain and Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax remained at 10 Downing Street throughout the morning, supervising the transcription of the complete draft of Britain's reply to Hitler which the cabinet has now unanimously approved.

Downing Street sources said there was scant likelihood of the Anglo-German exchanges being made public tonight. Instead, it was said, Chamberlain would make the "fullest possible" statement covering all events before Parliament tomorrow.

While Downing Street continued to warn against speculation, it was learned that Britain stands fully prepared to meet any emergency.

TELLS WHY HITLER DELAYS

By H. R. KNICKERBOCKER

PARIS, Aug. 28 (INS)—Adolf Hitler requires another three to five days to bring his army on the eastern frontier up to striking strength, according to latest information received in Paris today by the authorities entrusted with the task of learning enemy movements.

Therefore, Hitler is not expected to begin a war before Thursday if he intends to begin it at all.

It is admitted that to obtain and transmit from Germany any information regarding troop movements at this moment is as difficult as in war-time.

Nevertheless, allied authorities believe that they know within 20 per cent the number and disposition of divisions of the German army.

NEEDS 60 DIVISIONS
According to these experts' sources, Germany requires around 60 divisions at the Polish frontier in order to carry out Hitler's plan to crush Poland's 30 divisions in the shortest possible time.

Until today, however, German divisions on the Polish border numbered 23.

Hitler, therefore, according to best military opinion in Paris, Continued on Page 13, Column 1

Kennedy Gets Tourist Ship

LONDON, Aug. 28 (INS)—United States Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy announced today that the embassy had succeeded in chartering a special Dutch ship to transport American tourists to England to the United States.

The vessel is the Dutch steamer John V. Oldenbroek. It was booked within four hours after it was hired and will sail with between 100 and 1100 Americans.

BULLETINS

LONDON, Aug. 28 (INS)—A rumor that Premier Mussolini will broadcast a world-wide appeal for peace tonight was circulated from Rome today by the Exchange Telegraph Co.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 28 (AP)—With a general mobilization order, the Netherlands today prepared to swell its army and navy to three times its present strength. By tomorrow The Netherlands expects to have 400,000 men under arms. Naval reserves will be called to man second line ships.

WARSAW, Aug. 28 (INS)—German secret police arrested 10,000 Czechs in Prague in a series of night-long raids.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28 (AP)—The Cunard-White Star Line announced today cancellation of five west-bound sailings: Britannic from Havre, Sept. 1, for New York; Scythia from Liverpool, Sept. 1, for Boston and New York; Alania from Havre to Montreal, Aug. 25; Aurania from Havre, Sept. 1, for Montreal, and Ascania from Havre for Montreal, Sept. 8.

War--or Bluff

By J. C. GESTREICHER
International News Service Foreign Editor

The die was cast today. Either Adolf Hitler must back down for the first time in his career as Fuehrer and chancellor of the German Reich, or else there is going to be a war—the bloodiest and costliest war in history.

This conclusion is now inescapable. Great Britain has obviously decided upon a policy of "no surrender" to the man in Berlin who once again holds the fate of nations, even civilization, in the hollow of a hand that once held a paint brush.

War!

Every event that transpired during the frenzied hours of this sinister day in the history of the world lent emphasis to Britain's determination.

The Parliament of Great Britain would never have been summoned back from vacation unless the government was prepared to announce a decision of historic import.

The Mediterranean and the Baltic seas would never have been closed to British shipping unless Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain envisaged them as theaters of war within a few hours.

The issue then lies with Hitler. Can he, or will he, back down?

Much depends upon his own quiet meditation during the next few hours—if he finds time for any such avocation while his government is so busy readying the population for war with ration cards and gas masks.

For all his mysticism, the Fuehrer is a hard-headed realist when it comes to adding up armies and the strength of guns. Therefore one hope remains. If during the next few hours he is convinced that if Germany fights it will be fighting virtually the whole world, the scale may yet be turned in favor of peace.

Italy's participation as a German ally in event of war is by no means certain. The treaty signed between the Reich and Soviet Russia is one of non-aggression—not of mutual assistance. Japan has turned its back upon Berlin in reprisal for the Russo-German pact. Generalissimo Francisco Franco has been antagonized as well. Turkey, Greece and Rumania remain staunch allies of Britain.

Can Hitler still hope then that any new war would find the "150,000,000 Fascists" of whom he and Premier Mussolini often have boasted ready to go to war for revision of the Treaty of Versailles frontiers? Can he, as a matter of fact, still find "150,000,000 Fascists" in Europe where new alignments and new friendships have been formed overnight?

There are many in England today who still believe that Hitler is bluffing, and that staunch resistance by Britain and France this time will be enough to call his bluff and force him to back down without a war.

The element of wishful thinking is clearly evident here. But in Hitler's new historic letter to Premier Edouard Daladier of France there was actually more of bluff than of hostile threats.

Most significant was his peculiarly characteristic observation that Germany's "power politics" and "dynamite diplomacy" had saved the statesmen of Great Britain and France a great deal of trouble and embarrassment. By presenting Europe with a fait accompli, he pointed out, he has time and again spared these statesmen the necessity of explaining away to their electorates events of history that otherwise might not sit well with the voting classes.

This was an obvious bid to Chamberlain and Daladier to encourage Hitler to take the law into his own hands again. But this time, they are not going to let him do it.

Bluff

Hitler would let IL DUCE mediate?

BERLIN, Aug. 28 (AP)—Adolf Hitler was represented in well-informed circles today to be willing to have some friend like Premier Mussolini mediate in Germany's dispute with Poland.

In rejecting direct negotiations with Warsaw, Hitler disclosed his demands on Poland not only included return of the Free City of Danzig and Pomerania (Polish Corridor), but also vaguely implied he would insist on other "adjustments" at the expense of Poland.

In connection with suggestions that Mussolini would be acceptable as a mediator, reliable sources said that Benito Mussolini, Italian ambassador to Germany, is in frequent touch with Hitler and Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop.

Hitler indicated in a reply to Premier Daladier of France, made public early today, that he considered direct talks with Poland would be futile.

"I see no possibility for us on our part to exert influence in the direction of reasonableness upon Poland," the Fuehrer declared. He did not comment directly on Daladier's suggestion that the French premier was "ready to make every effort which an upright man can undertake" toward a peaceful solution.

Had Hitler intended to ask mediation by Daladier he would, it was argued in political circles here, have asked Daladier in his reply. Official quarters said nothing was known in Berlin about a second round to Hitler which Paris dispatches said Daladier was drafting.

MRS. FERDINAND PAARAND
Husband Tells of Her Slaying

TWO GIRLS LINKED TO WIFE-SLAYING ON REVERE BEACH

Out of his past and his love-life today loomed two girls whom police said they wished to question in connection with the alleged Revere Beach slaying of his wife by Ferdinand Paarand, wavy-haired tunnel worker, temporarily of Chelsea.

One—and the one police assert is indirectly responsible for his asserted confession to the slaying—is a girl named Marie, now living in Brooklyn, N. Y., the unmarried mother of Paarand's child.

The other, a Chelsea girl, not known by name yet to the police, is said to be working in a store, although trained as a nurse. Paarand, according to detectives, had recently been in communication with the girl Marie in Brooklyn and had admitted to them that she bore him a child "three or four years ago."

From letters found among Paarand's possessions, police said, it is evident that the 25-year-old husky "sardonic, now accused of murder, had contemplated returning to his first love—the mother of his child.

After Paarand had been arraigned today in Chelsea court on the charge of slaying Mrs. Edna Paarand, 27-year-old former Maryland nurse and had been held without bail for the grand jury, detectives revealed it was because of the Brooklyn girl that Paarand allegedly had confessed.

"For God's sake don't drag her into it!" Paarand is said to have pleaded. "She had nothing to do with it. I'll tell you everything."

Sergeant Harry Reen and Detective-Sergeant William Conniff of the Revere Metropolitan police, with Sergeant Joseph Fallon, loaned by Boston police for the investigation, had come across the letters from "Marie" among Paarand's effects in the Chelsea apartment he occupied with the now dead wife.

Unless the mystery was speedily cleared up, the efforts to free the prisoner, it would be necessary to bring Marie here to question her. The letters disclosed her address.

It was then, they said, that Paarand

Army Chief Warns Vets of U. S. Perils

The skilled mechanic is the crux of America's mighty defense program it was declared today by Acting Secretary of War Louis Johnson in an address opening the 40th national encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The nation's war chief served warning in Symphony Hall to the vanguard of some 60,000 veterans that the real obstacle to adequate preparedness is a dearth of skilled and courageous mechanics. He stated that the Navy and Army must continue to be strengthened, but that above all America must find "soldiers with mechanical training."

NEW PENSION PLAN

Johnson's warning on the state of the national defense came after National Commander-in-Chief Eugene I. Van Antwerp had formally opened the week's convocation biggest in V. F. W. history and in doing so had cast the shadow of a possible policy split over the gathering.

Van Antwerp served notice that he will lead a determined stand in opposition to pensions for veterans who are able to provide for themselves without government aid.

Only a few days ago at the Massachusetts Department convention of the American Legion, Wilfred Jacobs, V. F. W. state commander, as a guest speaker, suggested a general pension program for all veterans, which was greeted in silence by the Legionnaires.

Clarifying the V. F. W. position, the national commander-in-chief scouted the idea of a general pension, but insisted that the men who have borne the physical burden of America's wars on foreign shores are entitled "to much more than the uncertainties of a WPA project."

"They are entitled to know that the country they were willing to defend in time of war will at least give them the assurance of a roof over their heads, and food to eat in time of peace," the veterans' chieftain declared.

"We are confronted with the serious problem of creating security for nearly 500,000 veterans who want work, but can't find it simply because industry turns thumbs down on men over 40."

60,000 STRONG

Despite his assurance that the V. F. W. will not press for a general pension, it was plain that many members of the organization favor such a system.

Formal opening of the convention came after a night of contrasts as the veterans gathered.

Police Hunt 'Ripper' As Child Is Slashed

Acting on the theory that a fiend inflicted a three-inch slash on a 14-year-old Dorchester girl, Fields Corner police launched an extensive search throughout Dorchester today for a mysterious "ripper."

Mr. and Mrs. John MacLeod of Dakota st., parents of Miriam, told police their daughter came running home with the wound on her back. There are several other slashes in her dress, made, police believe, with a razor.

Sally Eilers Pays Cape Fine

WAREHAM, Aug. 28 (AP)—Sally Eilers of stage and screen fame paid a $5 fine today for speeding, after her attorney entered a plea of guilty. She was not in court.

The blonde actress, appearing in summer stock in nearby Dennis, was arrested on complaint of State Trooper Herbert Haley who said he chased her several miles on Aug. 17.

3 Men Save Woman In Harbor Plunge

A well-dressed and attractive young "mystery" woman who rescued today after she had plunged into the harbor from Union wharf, off Commercial st., North End.

The life was saved when three freight handlers employed on the wharf jumped fully clothed into the water and swam to her aid. They took her back to the wharf, where she was held by the freight platform by a loading crane.

HIDES HER IDENTITY

Questioned by police, who took her to City Hospital, she refused to divulge her identity or explain her plunge.

She was described as about 30 years old, fashionably attired and pretty.

At the hospital, doctors said she had suffered no apparent ill effects from her immersion, but they held her for observation.

According to police, she might have drowned had it not been for the vigilance of Freight Handlers Walter Langst of the J. L. Kellogg Co. Union wharf.

3 SWIM TO AID

Noticing her belaboring on the wharf, he told his workmen to keep an eye on her.

In consequence, she had hardly hit the water when three of the freight handlers, Carroll O'Brien, John McCarthy and William Seward, were swimming to her rescue. Seward reached her first and held her up until McCarthy and O'Brien came and gave him a hand in bringing her to safety.

CHILDREN EVACUATE
AS IN WAR

LONDON, Aug. 28 (AP)—A million and a half school children tramped the streets of London and 20 other key cities in the cold light of dawn today as Britain prepared for any emergency with a rehearsal of its evacuation plans for children.

By 5 a. m. the streets of London's poorer sections were filled with children. Instead of lunches they carried gas masks, instead of books, a change of clothes and 48 hours' rations.

It was the dreaded "first day back" after the summer vacation for many, but there were not many stragglers. The children treated evacuation as a huge joke.

JIBES AT OLD TITLER

They laughed and yelled, brandished sticks at an imaginary "old Tiler," and sang on their way to school.

Their mothers walked beside them, talking in low tones. There wasn't any gaiety among them.

By 9 a. m. teachers were putting the children through their drill, seeing they had the necessary provisions and making sure identification tags were in place.

Many a mother thought she was seeing the last of little Alf or Liz for months to come. There was a wide-spread feeling that this evacuation, a rehearsal, might be turned into the real thing before it was over.

SAFE HAVENS SECRET

So while the teachers instructed their pupils what to say to the country families who will board them, the mothers stayed outside the schools, anxious knots of whispering women.

After instructions the children were marched off to bus and railroad stations from where, in time of war, they will be taken to safe havens in the countryside.

The mothers tagged along. Under plans the destination of each child will not be known for several days after they leave London. After the evacuation drill the children took up their school lessons. They'll carry their gas masks, their clothes, their rations to school every day for a while.

Duke of Windsor
Ready to 'Join Up'

PARIS, Aug. 28 (INS)—If Britain needs him, the Duke of Windsor will immediately return to London, it was stated here.

An official statement issued at the Chateau De La Croix declared:

"The Duke of Windsor is in constant touch with the British government with a view of returning to England immediately if and when the necessity arises."

'Bread Cards
End, Not Begin
War'—Schacht

PARIS, Aug. 28 (INS)—Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, former German economics minister, still a member of the German cabinet without portfolio, today was credited by Paris-Midi with this comment on the announced rationing of food in Germany:

"You finish, but never begin, a war with bread cards."

German Wives in Rush to Buy
Food as Ration Ban Goes On

BERLIN, Aug. 28 (AP)—Nazi Germany's capital saw today the greatest run on its food stores in decades.

Housewives hurried to grocer, butcher, dairyman and other provisioners to get their names down for the new rationing process.

In addition, they bought whatever the dealers would give them of stocks not yet on the ration list.

These included eggs, potatoes, flour and canned goods of all sorts. Germans began to eat less of some favorite foods because of the government's new system of rationing—a "pre-war measure of conservation."

While housewives thus were seeking to adapt themselves to the emergency situation, Berlin's men were standing before bill boards or bill-columns reading ardently.

AUTOS, GAS LIMITED

Their attention was drawn especially to a notice stating that after September 1, Friday, gasoline, too, would be rationed strictly.

That is rationed for those who are still allowed to retain a car.

Under terms of the gasoline decree, the owner of an automobile must prove he needs his car and negotiate on the amount of gasoline he may purchase daily.

There already had been a ban on the sale of gasoline from 6 p. m. Saturday to 8 a. m. Monday to prevent waste of the precious fluid in weekend pleasure drives.

There is plenty of bread, potatoes, vegetables, rye and wheat flour. But there is less meat, sausage, marmalade, coffee, milk and sugar as a result of the plan.

Drawing on its experience in the World War when, many contend, the country was starved into submission by the British blockade, Germany decided to ration herself now.

MEAT DIET CURBED

The government-prescribed diet, as published today, limits meat consumption to a person for one week to 700 grams, approximately 24.7 ounces.

Consumption of dairy products, oils and fats has been set at 60 grams, about 2.1 ounces a day for each person.

The sugar rationing is severe, allowing only 280 grams, about 9.9 ounces a person in a week.

Marmalade, of late a favored food on German breakfast tables, is limited to 110 grams, about 3.9 ounces, on the same basis.

Breakfast foods are restricted to 150 grams, approximately 5.3 ounces. Every German must get along for a week with 63 grams of coffee, or coffee substitute, about 2.2 ounces.

Tea is rationed on a monthly basis, allowing 20 grams, about 0.7 ounce a person.

The daily allowance for milk is set at 0.2 liters, little less than a half pint.

Children below the age of six, upon application, will be given an additional daily allowance of 0.5 liters, little more than a pint.

Expectant and nursing mothers, also on application, will be given an additional daily milk quota of 0.3 liters, about three-fourths of a pint.

A special provision has been made for men performing unusually heavy physical labor. Their ration of dairy products, oils and fats is increased by 50 grams, approximately 1.7 ounces daily.

Their meat allowance is increased by 400 grams, about 14.1 ounces weekly, bringing their total weekly meat ration to 1100 grams, approximately 42 ounces.

Soaps and soap products also are rationed.

For a period of four weeks each person will be given 125 grams, about 4.4 ounces of black soap or approximately seven ounces of soft soap and 8.8 ounces of powdered soap.

No details as to rationing of textiles and leather goods have been published.

Britons in Bomb
Panic Over
Black Balls

LONDON, Aug. 28 (AP)—Women screamed "Bombs!" and scores were knocked to the pavement in a stampede in Downing st. today shortly before the British cabinet met.

A suitcase was hurled into the air, releasing several dozen round black objects among the crowd watching the Cabinet ministers arrive at 10 Downing Street.

However, instead of bombs it was a shower of black rubber balls with chalked slogans, "Peace now" and "Britain must not go to war."

Mounted police rode into the jam and arrested a hatless eccentric who had thrown the suitcase.

"There is nothing in it," he muttered as he was taken away. Shouts of "Lynch him!" came from the crowd.

How Europe's Soldier Strength Is Spread

GIRDLED for war today were Poland, France, England and Germany, though frantic efforts were being made to preserve peace. Above map shows how each country has distributed its troops, waiting for the crisis to break.

Daladier Speeds New Appeal To Hitler; Masses 3,000,000

PARIS, Aug. 28 (AP)—Premier Daladier drew up a second letter to Adolf Hitler today in an effort to dissuade the German Fuehrer from going to war and keep the way open for peaceful negotiations.

The French government simultaneously extended its preparedness for war with publication of a decree appointing censorship to news and photographs.

Effective today, the decree said all printed publications, radio broadcasts and newscasts must be submitted to the newly formed general information service for approval.

Export of all photographs and newscasts was forbidden except for those bearing a visa from the information service.

France was reaching the last stages in full preparedness with progressive mobilization of troops, requisition of transportation and partial evacuation of Paris.

Approximately 2,000,000 men were under arms in the French empire. Numerous defense measures were decreed by the Paris police. All lighted signs on the capital's normally blazing boulevards were banned.

Householders were warned that no light must shine out from windows or doors under threat that electricity would be cut off unless they comply.

Despite these precautions, Paris was calm. Only small crowds stood outside newspaper offices.

Persons close to Daladier said he had not abandoned the fight for peace, and that he would send another message to Hitler at almost the same time the British cabinet transmits its note to Hitler.

The second letter, these sources said, would not alter France's firm stand in support of Poland.

It would undertake, instead, they said, to persuade Hitler of the "error of his ways" in refusing to negotiate directly with Poland over his claims on Danzig and Pomerania, the Polish Corridor.

This was the latest move in a swift exchange of views between France and Germany, which began

Friday with Hitler's outline of his aim to the French ambassador in Berlin, Robert Couindore.

Parisians were told again to leave the capital, if they could.

If war comes, the French and British strategy is believed by some military critics to be aimed at putting Italy quickly from her ally, Germany.

F.D.R. KEEPS PHONE WIRES OPEN TO KENNEDY, PARIS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (INS).—President Roosevelt kept transatlantic telephone wires open today to America's two major ambassadors—Joseph P. Kennedy in London, and William C. Bullitt in Paris. He awaited British and French reaction to German Fuehrer Hitler's latest demands.

For the moment there was neither official affirmation nor denial that President Roosevelt had been sounding out the other 20 republics of the western hemisphere with a view to making one final concerted appeal in the Old World.

There was no mistaking the gravity with which the President viewed foreign developments. It was almost certain that London's action in studding its famous Hyde Park with anti-aircraft em-placements would decide Mr. Roosevelt to cancel the special train that was waiting tonight to take him back to his own Hyde Park home on the Hudson.

On the Presidential desk it was said, lay a call for a special session of Congress—lacking only the familiar "Franklin D. Roosevelt" signature and withheld strictly until such time as war might be precipitated abroad.

It was regarded certain that this would not go out unless actual conflict developed.

American observers, in view of Hitler's long note of proposition to French Premier Daladier, looked to London for the final answer on war or peace.

Britain Closes 2 Seas to Ships

In defense of Poland, Chamberlain's communication will inform Germany that Britain cannot agree to surrender of Danzig or abrogation of the Anglo-Polish pact as a prerequisite to any negotiations.

WHAT BRITAIN ANSWERS
 Authorities said that regardless of final touches put on the British reply by the cabinet Sir Neville will tell Hitler this:

1—Hitler's demand that Britain cancel her alliance with Poland is rejected.

2—Britain stands by her promise to fight for Poland's independence.

3—No concessions not fully acceptable to Poland can be considered.

4—A "new atmosphere" to be brought about by the lifting of around London is essential before any negotiations can be opened—in other words, a "truce" of many months will be necessary before negotiations can be carried out.

5—Britain, however, still believes that a peaceful solution of the problem is possible and is willing to offer her "good offices" if negotiations between Poland and Germany prove feasible.

DOOR KEPT OPEN
 The reply will, in the British view, keep the door wide open to further discussion by this last item in the reply.

According to informed circles, the British reply is generally so impressive a document in which every word is carefully weighed to stand the test of time and particularly to reinforce the British viewpoint.

The cabinet met in a tense 50-minute session during which Henderson was given final instructions.

No communique was issued at conclusion of the meeting, but it was learned no immediate further negotiation had been arranged. The British government apparently felt that everything possible had been done, and that if war must come, the empire is now ready for it.

Developments of the last few hours include the following:

1—The Franco-German frontier was sealed completely when German troops closed the Rhine river bridge opposite Strasbourg.

2—Polish troops, according to German charges, blew up the Jablunka tunnel connecting Slovakia and Poland.

EUROPA TO HAMBURG
 3—The North German Lloyd liner Europa, eastward bound, failed to call at Southampton and Cherbourg on schedule, proceeding direct to Hamburg with 40 British and American passengers aboard.

4—Sailing of several British passenger liners from French ports was cancelled.

Informed quarters described the situation as "steadily moving toward a climax."

Britain Clamps War Rule on Civil Life

LONDON, Aug. 28 (INS)—Giving the authorities power virtually to take over the entire civil life of the country immediately upon the rise of an emergency, the first batch of "orders in council" under the Cabinet's decree powers were issued today.

In the form of a white paper, the orders cover a tremendous range of activities, with the intention principally of maintaining the security of the state and public safety and preventing espionage.

The decrees prohibit photographing or sketching in forbidden areas, and ban even discussion of matters that might be useful to the enemy.

Officials are empowered to evacuate completely any prohibited zones, even to the extent of destroying livestock.

The ministry of health was authorized to enforce the billeting of troops or civilians.

To prevent "misleading acts and misrepresentations regarding essential services to the state," officials were given the widest powers to prevent interference with radio, telephones, and telegraphs—including a measure of control over carrier pigeon lofts.

Ciphers, codes, and other secret means of communication, no matter through what channels, are prohibited unless approved by the authorities.

Officials were empowered to commandeer any property "for the protection of persons from war operations."

Authorization also was given for the control of ship and aircraft movements. Land may be commandeered for agricultural purposes.

The authorities also may take over the railroads and control traffic in ports.

British Officers On Nazi Frontier

BASEL, Switzerland, Aug. 28 (INS)—Truckloads of British officers already have appeared on the French-German frontier, receiving cheers from the Alsatian populace, according to reports here.

With all able-bodied men called up, silent mobilization is being carried on by Germany across the border from Basel, it was learned today.

DUCE READY FOR PEACEMAKER ROLE TO STAVE OFF WORLD WAR

ROME, Aug. 28 (AP)—Fascists said today Premier Mussolini was ready to lend his good offices to a settlement of European problems, but indicated that Great Britain and France would have to satisfy both Germany and Italy of their good will.

Virginia Gayda, often the unofficial spokesman of the government, said Mussolini alone could not "accomplish the miracle expected of him."

"He has need," Gayda wrote in the Giornale d'Italia, "of responsible men of good will who listen to his words and understand with honesty the spirit in which he speaks them."

The margin of time in which to avert war, he said, was lessening, adding, "No bright hopes should be drawn" for the current "waiting phase."

The British government's reply to Adolf Hitler "may bring a useful element to the orientation of international positions if not to the solution of pending questions," Gayda observed.

"But it is certain that if the adversaries do not deliberately want war, they should refrain from mixing with the elementary limits of the problem and its solutions, their own questions of prestige and calculations of unconfessable aspirations."

SQUALUS BOW UP, BUT SINKS AGAIN

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 28 (AP)—

The bow of the disabled submarine Squalus broke the surface again today, but again disappeared as salvagers prepared to tow her to the navy yard.

A radio message from Admiral Cyrus W. Cole, in charge of salvage operations, reported:

"Bow surfaced at 10:44 (E.D.T.) at 36 degrees list to port and slowly sank. Started blowing air section and surfaced stern pontoons at 11:28. Ship apparently righted herself to some degree and now endeavoring to raise bow."

Navy yard officials said they believed operations were progressing in an entirely satisfactory manner and that they expected the Squalus would be surfaced momentarily.

Find Everett Man's Body in Cellar 'Gym'

It's a long time now since Angelo Cafasso, 50-year-old Everett grocer, rigged the horizontal bar on which his three children and their playmates have had so much fun doing stunts in the cellar of their home in Bow at

Today Cafasso was found hanging, with one end of a clothesline round his neck, the other end tied to the horizontal bar.

The discovery was made by his wife, who called police. They, together with firemen, worked over Cafasso with inhalators for an hour and a half, but the grocer finally was pronounced dead by Dr. Joseph Leavitt of Maplewood Hospital.

Police said they were told by Mrs. Cafasso she knew of no reason for her husband taking his life. He owned the Bow at block in which his home and the grocery store are located.

LINK GIRL-MOTHER TO WIFE-SLAYING

and confessed, although the detective says they still do not place faith in that part of his story where he said his mind went blank after he punched his wife in the back.

It is yet to be explained, detectives said, how she came to be in the water. Her body was found floating 30 feet off shore in the Oak Island section of Revere four days after the alleged slaying. And death actually was from strangulation, according to the medical examiner.

The detective said Pastrand told them he became his father to Marie's child a year or two before he met Edna Phelps of Middletown, Md., while she was on a vacation cruise and he was a seaman on the same coastal ship.

LED TO DEATH SCENE

Later he went to work in a Maryland hospital where she was training as a nurse, and two years ago they married. But he always had been in communication with the Brooklyn girl, he admitted.

After his arrested confession, Pastrand accompanied the officers to an isolated spot at the Revere breakwater, where, according to claims, he strangled his wife and threw her in the water after knocking her down.

"I lost my head," he said. "I don't remember anything that happened after that until I came to about an hour later walking on the beach, and my wife was gone."

In his confession he told of going to Roughan's Point, Beachmont, with his wife last Monday afternoon, both wearing bathing suits under their outer clothing.

"MIND WENT BLANK"

"We sat down in the sand in our bathing suits," Pastrand was quoted by police as saying. "We began arguing. We had been arguing for months over her stepping out. Finally she made a remark to the effect 'What if it?' and I stood up. She got up on her feet also and I hit her in the face and knocked her down. She may have been unconscious."

"Then my mind went blank. I don't know what happened. I might have choked her or dropped her into the water or anything, but I can't remember. The next thing I remember I was walking on the beach about an hour later. I looked for my wife but she was gone."

GAS HALTS STRIKERS IN BARRE

SOUTH BARRE, Aug. 28 (AP)—

Picketing strikers, wearing home-made gas masks, charged groups of workers today as they sought to enter the plant of the Barre Wood Combining Co., where a strike is entering its fifth week.

Deputy sheriffs broke up one demonstration with tear gas which they said easily penetrated the pickets' makeshift masks—handkerchiefs soaked in vinegar—stopped a second clash by parting the combatants, and made two arrests.

Deputy sheriffs said about 200 workers entered the mill despite the attacks and jeering of pickets. About a dozen consists of tear gas were used to break up the first clash, they said.

Human Side of News

RECALL the old cliché: "Men from Mars." Well, now we know that's not true. Men are from Mars, and women are from Venus. But what if we could understand each other? What if we could see the world from the other side? That's the idea behind the Human Side of News. It's a place where we can learn about each other, where we can see the world through someone else's eyes. It's a place where we can find common ground, where we can build bridges between different cultures and different people. It's a place where we can all feel like we belong.

Fifteen

I SHOULD have known you, Dear, that in the world and age of mine. Little rosebud so bright, smiling in the light, with the grace and the poise of a queen.

I should like to have known you, Dear, then, when you gazed with serious eyes... at the world that you saw, golden girls held for you... and each morn brought a new and surprise.

Were you not from, then, were yours? All would I have known them again. But the rainbow must fade, and the little and I. But I wish I had known you, Dear, then.

By EDWIN C. HILL

ONCE there was a New York newspaperman whose name was Neil. Not the last name doesn't matter. Neil was an all-around good scout, a demon news getter, a thirty-second degree mixer and a front-trinch bubble of the distinguished show-binders of the newspapermen and Broadway Press Agencies.

All at once, Neil got a call from Philadelphia to run a magazine column of advice to girls. The ticket called for a pious, motherly and monitory person, frowning, an unseemly speech and a comb pointing a stern finger at all of the perils of indiscretion. Neil's column qualified on all counts.

AFTER several years had passed there was a sentimental play try-out which took the old Broadway crowd to Philadelphia. The boys set up a big party for Neil and brought into his office with a whomp to drag her away.

There she was in a severe black dress, with a white collar and a white hat, her hair done up in a tight knot, surveying them coldly through gold-rimmed pince-nez.

In phrase grammatical Philadelphia English she made it clear that she considered the invasion an outrage, and that she was staggered, crushed and bowed down. Dressing, writing and speaking the part of Aunt Sarah, she had become just that.

Will the boys, the bunnies, the flames and the emerald do this to our girls?

PITCHERS GANG UP ON '20' MARK

By Associated Press

Before the finish this baseball season may be notable for many things—including Joe D-Maggio, first 400 hitter in 90 years—but it seems certain to have a bumper crop of pitchers winning 20 or more games.

In the first flush of mid-season enthusiasm over achievements of Buckey Walters, Bob Feller, Red Ruffing and their fellow tradesmen, some fans even thought a 30-game winner might pop up.

WALTERS STALLED

This prospect faded when Walters was stalled two weeks trying to win his 21st game for the Reds. However, he's going to have plenty of company in the 20-class, which last year numbered only Ruffing, Bill Lee, Buck Newsum and Paul Derringer.

Ruffing reached the goal for the fourth consecutive year yesterday as the Yankees fanned the Tigers, 13-3, for their ninth straight victory, extending their American League lead to 13 full games.

Feller pitched Cleveland a four-hit, 1-0 shutout in the first game of a doubleheader against the Red Sox for his 20th triumph. The Tribe also bumped Boston in the second game, 5-3, for the Sox' fifth consecutive loss.

Derringer hurled the Reds to a 7-2 decision over the Giants, bringing his total of games won to 17, within easy range of the target.

OTHERS NEAR 20 MARK

Among other pitchers aiming at the mark are Curt Davis of the Cardinals, with 18 already won; Tommy Bridges of the Tigers; and Bill Lee of the Cubs, each with 16 victories, and Buck Newsum of Detroit, Luke Hamlin of the Dodgers and Dutch Leonard of the Senators, with 15 apiece.

Leonard got his 15th yesterday as the Senators performed an about-face against the St. Louis Browns, 8-7.

Cy Eklund stopped the Dodgers, 6-5, in his first start since April 23 after they had beaten the Pirates, 3-2, in the opener.

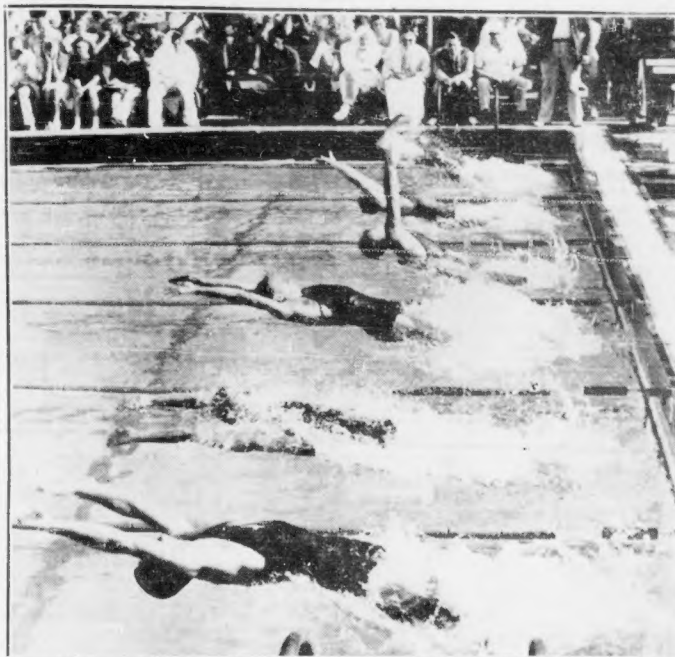

Bill Beckman shut out the White Sox for the Athletics, 2-0, in a pitching duel with Thornton Lee.

HAWAIIANS BRACE U. S. FOR 1940

DETROIT, Aug. 28 (AP)—America's swimming leaders looked westward today for the latest with which to and Japan's supremacy in the water when the 1940 Olympic games are held at Helsinki, Finland.

Using returns of the men's Amateur Athletic Union outdoor championships as a basis, it seemed evident that America will get good support in the Olympic quest from nine tiny, known-skilled youths from Hawaii.

Five from the island of Maui combined to score 22 points in the four-day meet which closed yesterday and take the national championships for the first time the team title over the United States.

The four other Hawaiians who made the 12,000-mile trip represented three different Hawaiian organizations and scored a total of 14 points.

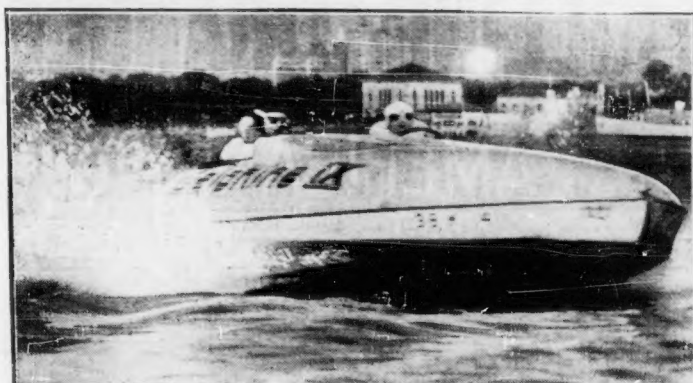

Ralph Flanagan of Aiea, Tex., completed his fourth grand slam of the distance events by taking the 800-yard freestyle in 10 minutes and 16 seconds. Adolph Kiefer of Chicago won the 400-meter individual medley for the second straight year.

Major surprise of the day was the downfall of Peter Pick of New York in the 100-meter freestyle. Pick could do no better than 1:10 place as Otto Jantz, a 17-year-old Chicago high school boy, was awarded a close decision by the judges.

Nelson-Picard
Duel at Belmont?

By BILL GRIMES

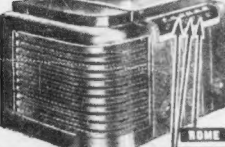

John Curley, graduate manager at Boston College, was peering out the window of the "A. A." today looking for Frank Leahy. The new coach is on his way to the Heights from Daytona Beach, Fla.

One of the largest fields that ever participated in Knights of Columbus championship will play at Wachuset Country Club on Wednesday. There'll be three champions in the field, Judge Joseph W. Monahan, Belmont, Jimmy Fisher, Minute Man, and Jimmy "Nec Krock" Dulan, who is the professional at the Hurler's Country Club. In the N. E. P. G. A. amateur-pro tournament today at Martha's Vineyard, Dave Morey, former Bates College football and baseball coach, is paired with John H. Ward, Charles River. Dave is proving today he's one of Bernard's star pupils.

When the site of the qualifying round for the United States amateur championship was shifted to Charles River, the 35 contenders who will battle over the 36-hole route tomorrow for the six places allotted to New England received a wonderful break. There isn't a course in the entire New England section that's in as fine condition as Charles River. The R. H. White Co. Four Ball team has retired the Larry Bitter trophy. Johnny McNeill, former junior champion of the state, Johnny Hynds, Seegal and Faber took the measure of Pat Hegarty, another former junior title, George Jensen, Don McEachern and Fred Stumpe, who represented Fitch's by a margin of nine strokes. The R. H. White Co. (Arthur Kelley please note) probably will put up another trophy next season.

Sprint Races At Medford

Because of the increase in midgut auto racing interest which has been resulting in packed houses at Riverside Park, Medford, every Thursday night, Promoter A. D. Hatfield is now hard at work on a special program for his coming card.

There will be three special match races among the outland, ing speed kings in New England for "winner take all" purses and they will be one mile sprints. It is hoped that arrangements can be made to have Ed Eng oppose Bob King as this duo stands alone and speculation is decidedly "in" as to who is the superior driver.

Holiday Racing At Topsfield

Out standing big car auto drivers return to Topsfield Labor Day afternoon for the 15 mile classic at the Fair Grounds track. Bob Gardner, Cabot, Nick Roberts, Reading, Eddie Casterline, Malden, and Jimmy Rumpson, Brockton, are some of the Day State drivers in the whiff.

Officials of the Northeast Racing Association expect Joe Verber, winner of the Memorial Day and July 4 races at Topsfield, will come up from New Jersey.

Osmanski, Wyatt Star Co-Captains

CHICAGO, Aug. 28 (AP)—Bowden Wyatt, Tennessee end, and Bill Osmanski, Holy Cross fullback, have been elected co-captains of the College All-Stars for their game with the New York professional Giants in Soldier Field Wednesday night.

The 60-odd players on the All-Star squad gave the pair an equal number of votes, thus necessitating the use of co-captains for the first time since the game was originated six years ago.

"SCANDALS" COMEDIAN BEN BLUE IS SERIOUS ABOUT HIS HAIR

Ben Blue, famous stage and moving picture comedian now playing with George White's Scandals, knows that his hair is worth saving. Because he wants the best advice and treatment available he consults John E. Warner, New England's foremost hair and scalp specialist. Statistics show that baldness is a permanent condition, but 85% of all baldness is due to local scalp conditions which can be corrected if caught in time. Thousands of men have saved and improved their hair through treatment by John E. Warner—but no case is accepted for treatment unless beneficial results are certain. If you are starting to lose your hair you should, in your own best interests, consult John E. Warner. There is no charge or obligation for a private consultation at his office, 7th floor, 515 Washington St., opp. R. H. White's. Hours, 10:00 A. M. to 8:00 P. M. daily, Saturdays 10:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M. There is a separate Dept. for women. Fees are moderate. Phone Hub. 1705. Advt.

Strangely unlike — and like — Chancellor Hitler is this figure leaving a plane at Berlin, Ger., to greet negotiator of Soviet pact. A double?

London
